

"Movements of Peoples: Past, Present, and Future"

This event will examine the current refugee crisis as part of the celebration of the 50th anniversary for the National Endowment for the Humanities.

The event will feature a keynote address on Europe's refugees crisis in historical perspective by historian G. Daniel Cohen, Associate Professor of History at Rice University and author of In War's Wake: European Refugees in the Postwar Order (Oxford, 2011).

Other panelists will give brief remarks including: Gábor Demszky (special guest and former mayor, Budapest); Michael Blumenthal (WVU Law); Ari Bryen (WVU History); Jim

Friedberg (WVU Law); Cynthia Gorman (WVU Women's & Gender Studies and Geography); Karen Culcasi (WVU Geography); and Erik Herron (WVU Political Science)

What: 50th anniversary for the National Endowment for the Humanities

When: November 9, 2015, 6:00pm to 8:00pm

Where: College of Law Events Center

Sponsored by West Virginia University - WVU College of Law - Departments of History, Geology & Geography, and Political Science - The Center for Women's & Gender Studies