Professional Mentorship Program Application

The program offers College of Media juniors, seniors and graduate students the opportunity to be mentored by outstanding professionals in the fields of advertising, public relations, broadcasting, print and multimedia journalism. Professionals can offer resume advice, networking opportunities, interview preparation and an outlook on the current job market.

Applicants must complete the application and return it to Eric Minor, Director of Student Careers and Opportunities (104B Martin Hall) by noon on September 4, 2015. There are a limited number of placements available. Selection into the program is competitive. You will be notified by September 11th if you are selected to participate in the program.

If you are selected for the program, please note the following mandatory meeting dates:
